THOMAS EVANS

SUMMARY

Highly motivated jr. Front End Web developer and a seasoned Graphic designer. I use my creativity and resourcefulness to get the job done. Able to work successfully as a team member and as an individual contributor. An energetic fast learner who is detail oriented, resourceful, and highly organized. I love to travel, surf, and spend time with my wonderful family.

CONTACT

✉ evans_760@yahoo.com
🌐 thomasevans.design
in /in/thomas-evans-67301220
⑂ evans760

EDUCATION

General Assembly

Pallomar College

EMPLOYMENT

Evans Mixed Media
Graphic Design   2012 to Current

Creative director and branding development specialist for various non-profits and small businesses.

AngelPrint.com
Production   2007 to 2012

My experience working in production at AngelPrint demanded an expertise in multiple creative fields, the ability to quickly problem solve, and attention to detail. During this time I was able to prove my ability to successfully manage multiple projects with strict deadlines.

PROJECTS

Learn to Count in Spanish game
A game designed to teach one how to count to ten in Spanish.
Made with Javascript

Kayak Buddy
A social networking website geared towards connecting kayakers with like minded kayaker.
Made with Ruby on Rails, Postgres, and Materialize.
http://kayak-buddy.herokuapp.com/v

Bike Lock Finder
Bike Rack Finder is a part of a vision to promote bicycling culture in Seattle. Our goal is to provide cyclists with a solution to quickly and easily locate bike racks within the city of Seattle.
Made with Javascript, Bootstrap, Google Maps API, Seattle.gov API

SKILLS

HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, Github, Print Production, Graphic Design, Brand Identity, Typography, Layout, Illustration, Adobe Creative Cloud, Visual Communication, Creative Direction

AWARDS

2nd Place Bike Rack Finder · General Assembly Hackathon
8hr Hackathon - SERVICE IN SEATTLE HACKATHON GUIDLINES: Design web and mobile applications that will visually display some sort of service based information.